Hamilton Fraser Attends the First Cosmetic News Expo

Hamilton Fraser Insurance is attending the first ever Cosmetic News Expo at the Business Design Centre, Islington. The event, which takes place on Friday 16th of April and Saturday 17th of April 2010, is set to attract aesthetic medical professionals from all over the UK.

Hamilton Fraser Insurance will be exhibiting at the event to promote their Aesthetic & Cosmetic Professional Liability Insurance Policy. The policy provides extensive cover for aesthetic practitioners for a wide range of treatments.

Starting from as little as £625 a year aesthetic practitioners will be able to benefit from medical malpractice cover, products liability protection and work away public liability cover. The policy also provides personal accident protection, all under one simple policy contract. This is in addition to the excellent standard features of the current policy including breach of professional confidentiality.

Eddie Hooker, Managing Director of Hamilton Fraser said:

"We are pleased to be able to attend the Cosmetic News Expo. The Expo will give us the opportunity to meet existing aesthetic practitioners and those who are new to the market. It will also allow us to view all the latest developments in the aesthetic sector and help our Professional Liability Insurance stay up to date with the market so that we can offer the best range of cover for our customers"
